

August 2023 Data Release

The Home Purchase Sentiment Index® (HPSI) is a composite index designed to track consumers' housing-related attitudes, intentions, and perceptions, using six questions from the National Housing Survey® (NHS).

The Home Purchase Sentiment Index

The HPSI increased by 0.1 point to 66.9 in August.

Components of the HPSI

The slight increase in the HPSI this month can be attributed to net increases in three components (Selling Conditions, Mortgage Rate Outlook, Change in Household Income) and a net decrease in two components (Job Loss Concern and Home Price Outlook). Buying Conditions remained the same month over month.

August 2023

APPENDIX

About the Survey

The National Housing Survey® polled a nationally representative sample of 1,026 household financial decision makers (margin of error ± 4.04%) aged 18 and older between August 1st and August 20th, 2023.

The survey was fielded through AmeriSpeak®, NORC at the University of Chicago's probability-based panel, in coordination with Fannie Mae and PSB Insights.

The statistics in this release were estimated from sample surveys and are subject to sampling variability as well as non-sampling error, including bias and variance from response, nonreporting, and under-coverage, though weighting corrections have been applied. Averages of expected price changes were calculated after converting responses of "stay the same" to 0% and after excluding outliers, which were defined to be responses that were more than two standard deviations from the mean.
